LH ADVENTURE TRAVEL

Hey fellow adventurers! As much as we all love to travel. planning, executing, and navigating a trip can be stressful. Fortunately, travel apps can transform our entire experience. Here is a list of the best travel apps that I use, whether I'm on a personal journey or leading my women's wellness travel adventures:

ORGANIZATION

TRIPIT-This one's my all-time favorite! It's like my personal travel assistant, keeping all my itineraries and plans in one place. Trust me, it's a game-changer!

TRAVEL ABROAD

GOOGLE TRANSLATE -Pro tip – it can even translate an entire menu if you snap a pic!

Mind-blowing!

XE CURRENCY CONVERTER-So helpful for currency exchange!

GOOGLE VOICE-When WhatsApp isn't an option, this one's great for making overseas calls at way better rates.

AIRELO-Need an eSIM card for internet access? Airelo's got many options at good prices.

SHARED TRAVEL

SPLITWISE-Perfect for keeping track of who owes what when you're splitting expenses with your friends.

FOOD

WORD OF MOUTH Independent restaurant guide put together by a global community of industry experts and insiders

HAPPY COW-If you want to look for restaurants with vegetarian and vegan options, this app is great!

PLANNING-And for all you planners out there, here's a roundup of some of the more popular apps you may already use to create your itineraries:

TRIPADVISOR

GET YOUR GUIDE

VIATOR

EXPEDIA

WITH LOCALS

GURU WALKS-Walking tours

HOTELS.COM

BOOKING.COM

AIR BNB

HOTWIRE-Great deals usually for last minute cars

FLIXBUS-For buses in Europe

FLIGHTS

FLIGHT AWARE-The free version is a lifesaver, helping me keep tabs on whether flights are on time or delayed. It also provides valuable details, such as the assigned terminal for the flight.

NAVIGATION

GOOGLE MAPS-Invaluable for most places, but not always the best for navigating tricky spots like the Medina in Fes. For that, MAPSME seems to work better.

CITYMAPPER-Awesome for figuring out the ins and outs of public transportation in bustling cities.

HIKING

ALL TRAILS-My go-to hiking app for both research and staying on the right trail

These are some of my favorite apps for travel planning. I wish you an incredible journey!
